Zevik Treasure Hunt

A hoy, Mateys! The game is afoot; are ya ready for the treasure hunt? Welcome to Zevik Treasure Hunt! A fun and exciting scavenger hunt that takes place both in real life and inside the game world. It's a new interactive game that the whole family can play, where the kids put their logic and problem-solving skills to the test while mom and dad sit back and watch the chaos unfold. It's an educational experience that can help make learning and studying fun again, even at home. With Zevik Treasure Hunt, you can set your own motivation-whether it's the pleasure of getting a riddle right, unearthing a hidden prize, or the sweetness of winning candy. Advance in the game and earn real-life rewards! First things first: how do you play? There are three things you need to first start a game: a setting, treasures, and a smartphone. The setting can be your living room, a library, the office, or even the garden. Or why not all four? Either way, you'll be hiding treasures of your choice in different hiding spots inside your house. Stash healthy snacks like fruits and nuts, themed candy (golden chocolate coins!), or little toys and tokens that your kids will enjoy, like shiny marbles, small amounts of pocket money, or dice. Be creative about your hiding spots! Behind or inside vases, underneath carpets, between books, in the shelves, and under pillows. (Note: You can wrap your food prizes in little sandwich bags to keep out dust and dirt.) And finally, use the app to take pictures of the different hideouts, from a distance. Now the game is set! The game is played by solving different challenges to win clues towards the treasure. Challenges are incorporated in any one of our available game worksheets booklets, tailored to player age and skill level. Every time your pirates solve a problem in the worksheet they get a secret code that they can enter into the game app that should reveal the location of a hidden treasure hideout. You can spice things up by leveling up the difficulty or by adding a timer. Adults and older kids can help little ones play if it looks like it's getting too hairy. With a Zevik Treasure Hunt, you can help the kiddos burn off extra energy before dinnertime while helping them study, too! If you're ready to play the game, Zevik Treasure Hunt: Preschool Worksheet #2001 is the perfect setup for preschool kids. This study worksheet for kids is the perfect setup for preschool, It contains different fun number challenges, word games, and Find the Object puzzles that should keep your young ones puzzling, scavenging, and laughing! Between the pages, the puzzles you will find include: - Counting (1-20) - Numbers Order - Numbers Comparison - One Digit Addition and Subtraction - Alphabets - Filling Missing Letters - Number Names (1-10) There should be an even spread of difficulty between the challenges in this worksheet so that it's not too easy to be boring, but also not so hard it triggers a tantrum. But don't be surprised if you find that these number games and puzzles can be fun to do alone, or outside of playing the scavenger hunt! This treasure game is a great way to get the whole family involved, together. And the pirate theme can really help parents instill an adventurer's spirit in their little ones! Here are a few more fun reasons to grab a copy of this Zevik

Treasure Hunt game worksheet: - For children 5-7 years old - Eye-catching cartoons and illustrations - Well-balanced mix of math and word puzzles - Entertaining and educational - Fun activity for the whole family

Treasure Hunt

Bert and Ernie's Great Adventures: Treasure Hunt is a musical sound book that invites children to join Bert and Ernie as they search a deserted island for buried treasure. Children ages 3 to 5 can enjoy pressing buttons to hear sounds as they read the engaging story about some of their favorite Sesame Street characters. Illustrated icons on the book's pages match seven buttons on a panel attached to the book. As readers and pre-readers follow the story, they can find the matching buttons and press them to hear the sounds of the Sesame Street characters' island adventure. Each button plays one of these sounds: • Bert and Ernie's pirate anthem • A creaking treasure chest lid • The popular kids' song "Sailing, Sailing" • A crash of lightning, signaling an approaching storm and an end to the Sesame Street friends' adventure • Chatter from Bert and Ernie's new monkey friend • Bert's playful tune as he navigates his friends safely off the island The book's extra-thick, coated pages help prevent rips and tears. Three replaceable long-life AG-13 button cell batteries that power the book are included. Bert and Ernie's Great Adventures: Treasure Hunt conforms to the safety requirements of ASTM F963-08. The book has been safety tested for children 18 months and older.

Pirates Don't Change Diapers

Judy Moody and Stink: The Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad Treasure Hunt

Judy and Stink co-star in their second full-color adventure — crawling with pirates and puzzles, carbuncles and chuckles. As soon as the Moody family drops anchor on "Artichoke" Island, they are greeted by Cap'n Weevil, a one-eyed buccaneer with a scraggly beard and a secret treasure map. Before you can say "Davy Jones's Locker," Stink and Judy are racing across the island in search of gold. But—shiver me timbers!—they're not the only salty dogs lookin' for loot. Can Mad Molly O'Maggot and Scurvy Stink beat out their rivals, Tall Boy and Smart Girl? Can they find the hidden clues, crack the secret codes, and solve the tricky puzzles before time runs out? Aaarrrr!

Every Kid Needs a Treasure Hunt

Every Kid Needs a Treasure Hunt with a Twist inspires kids to take up the pirate way of life-searching for loot, following clues, digging up gold coins and buried gems. Today's treasure hunters can't take to the open seas so easily, but fear not-we've come up with a crafty solution for every aspiring pirate! WARNING: CHOKING HAZARD. Small parts. Not for children under 3 years of age.

Treasure Hunts for Kids

Kids love treasure hunts. A treasure hunt can be designed to match a party's theme (such as a pirate, princess, favorite superhero, or favorite cartoon character) or you can have one just because it sounds like fun. There are so many different treasure hunt themes and ideas that it will amaze you. And trust me they can be just as much fun for you to design as they are for the kids to play. Inside you will find several examples of party ideas, ways to write clues, games and activities to play while in the middle of the treasure hunt and all sorts of ideas. These ideas are just ideas. You will be the one who creates 'The Magic'. You will be adding your own creativity and imagination to the party. You can adjust any of these ideas to fit almost any age group. So create an adventure for your kids this year. Create a Treasure Hunt. They'll remember it forever and who knows, they might even create one for their kids when they grow-up. Have fun. It's all about the Adventure! ChristyDavisBooks.Com 2013

Pirate Treasure Hunt

If you like Adventure, you're in for a treat. Throw in a Pirate story and you'll probably like it even more. Top it off with a mansion filled with puzzles, how could you go wrong? Three clever, adventurous siblings are invited to go on a pirate treasure hunt by their Grandfather's Last Will And Testament. They must put their lives on hold to fulfill their Grandfather's last wish and try and find the treasure that he could not. This hunt for riches takes them across the globe to a holiday resort. There they must follow a journal to discover a two hundred year old stash of Pirate booty. However, their quest leads them to a mysterious puzzle mansion, with many rules and a short time limit. Will the treasure be found, or will something unexpected rock their world? This book was inspired by many adventure movies and T.V. shows. The main one being, The Goonies movie. So if that movie puts a smile on your face, then so will this book. A few other things that inspired this book were things like National Treasure and any one of the Treasure Island versions. Look out for references from things like Disney's/Lucas Film's Star Wars, Capcom's Megaman and a certain potato chip slogan. This book was written for the young and old alike. There is no language and little violence so the younger ordinance will not be mentally scared. However, there are some complicated puzzles and riddles that the more mature people might like trying to solve before the characters do. This book is a good-old, funny, family friendly adventure that has a little for everyone. Action, adventure, comedy, romance and pirates. Can't forget the pirates. This isn't one of those stories that has an unrealistic plot, that makes up crazy things to fill in plot holes. This plot is rational, plausible and not too complicated. But most of all, it is still loads of fun, interesting and funny. In this volume, the main characters inherit a mysterious journal from their Grandfather's estate. Over a few days, they spend their time reading through the book and discover an amazing pirate story from long ago.

Doubles are good for lots of things—double scoops of ice cream, double features at the movies. But double vision is NOT a good kind of double. In fact, it can make kindergarten kind of hard. Ginny sees double chairs at reading circle and double words in her books. She knows that only half of what she sees is real, but which half? The solution to her problem is wondrously simple: an eye patch! Ginny becomes the pirate of kindergarten. With the help of her pirate patch, Ginny can read, run, and even snip her scissors with double the speed! Vibrant illustrations from Lynne Avril capture the realities of what Ginny sees both before and after.

The Pirate of Kindergarten

Join pirate captain Tosca and her motley crew, Needelspune, Dogzboddi and Coleslaw as they search for the clues to find the missing pirate treasure. Each challenge teaches basic mapping skills such as compass reading, using a map key and following a grid reference.

Space Pirates

A treasure hunt is a classic example of a hands-on game that requires completing tasks and solving puzzles to figure something out. Readers of this delightful book will follow along on a treasure-hunt adventure, solving puzzles on their own along the way. Each puzzle is accompanied by colorful illustrations and accessible text, including hints and clues to help the reader complete the task at hand. These unique puzzles encourage readers to efficiently find solutions to problems, an important part of the Common Core standards. This exciting volume is sure to be a hit with readers of many ages and levels.

The Treasure Hunt

The tale begins over three-hundred years ago, when the Fair People—the goblins, fairies, dragons, and other fabled and fantastic creatures of a dozen lands—fled the Old World for the New, seeking haven from the ways of Man. With them came their precious jewels: diamonds, rubies, emeralds, pearls... But then the Fair People vanished, taking with them their twelve fabulous treasures. And they remained hidden until now... Across North America, these twelve treasures, over ten-thousand dollars in precious jewels, are buried. The key to finding each can be found within the twelve full color paintings and verses of The Secret. Yet The Secret is much more than that. At long last, you can learn not only the whereabouts of the Fair People's treasure, but also the modern forms and hiding places of their descendants: the Toll Trolls, Maitre D'eamons, Elf Alphas, Tupperwerewolves, Freudian Sylphs, Culture Vultures, West Ghosts and other delightful creatures in the world around us. The Secret is a field guide to them all. Many "armchair treasure hunt" books have been published over the years, most notably Masquerade (1979) by British artist Kit Williams. Masquerade promised a jewel-encrusted golden hare to the first person to unravel the riddle that Williams cleverly hid in his art. In 1982, while everyone in Britain was still madly digging up hedgerows and pastures in search of the golden hare, The Secret: A Treasure Hunt was published in America. The previous year, author and publisher Byron Preiss had traveled to 12 locations in the continental U.S. (and possibly Canada) to secretly bury a dozen ceramic casques. Each casque contained a small key that could be redeemed for one of 12 jewels Preiss kept in a safe deposit box in New York. The key to finding the casques was to match one of 12 paintings to one of 12 poetic verses, solve the resulting riddle, and start digging. Since 1982, only two of the 12 casques have been recovered. The first was located in Grant Park, Chicago, in 1984 by a group of students. The second was unearthed in 2004 in Cleveland by two members of the Quest4Treasure forum. Preiss was killed in an auto accident in the summer of 2005, but the hunt for his casques continues.

The Secret

A band of tiny swashbucklers learn that treasure hunting is risky business in this epic conclusion of a chapter book series about pocket-sized pirates! The Pocket Pirates have left the safety of their shelf to search for gold...but dangers await them. The skirting-board mice are on the prowl, and the shopkeeper has an unwelcome surprise in store! Will they find the treasure they seek...or return to their ship-in-a-bottle empty-handed?
